The CONSIDER project aims at enhancing the quality of adult training services through cultivating the inclusion culture in adult learning organisations at managerial and training level.

- ✓ We have already created: a Quality Framework of an inclusive training organisation from managerial to training
- ✓ We are working on: an assessment tool for the management of adult training organisations and an assessment tool for trainers of adults
- ✓ We are designing e-learning courses for managers and adult trainers on how to promote inclusion in their organisations.

If you are interested to participate in the piloting of our outputs, receive free materials that will help your work and want to learn more about us please contact: Koralia Tsagkaratou Koralia@idec.gr and visit:

PASSIONPRENEURS aims to tackle unemployment and social exclusion of vulnerable population groups by helping them identify their interests, talents and passions and empower them to create social enterprises or find employment opportunities in this sector.

➤ Training Programme “Social Entrepreneurship through Passion”

Covers existing gaps as it is a comprehensive toolbox that will help participants improve their self-awareness, learn how to employ their interests, talents and passions in practice, and enhance their entrepreneurial skills. It is meant to be used by occupational counsellors, coaches, trainers of VET and adult education centres, as well as experts of business support organisations.

➤ Trainer’s guide for adult educators

It provides deeper insights into social entrepreneurship, the needs of people from vulnerable population groups, and methodologies one can use to identify interests, talents and passions, as well as develop (social) entrepreneurship skills and promote peer learning.

➤ Online Learning Platform

The platform consists of two parts: a course for aspiring entrepreneurs and additional materials for trainers and counsellors willing to organise entrepreneurial training.
